Harold Import Company announces the Lékué 100% Platinum Silicone Oven Mitt.

FEBRUARY 23, 2005 — Lékué introduces the revolutionary oven mitt made of 100% platinum silicone, specially designed to protect your hands from contact with heat sources in the kitchen. Heat resistant up to 575° F, it features a comfortable and safe grip thanks to a combination of insulating filaments and an external non-slip finish. Flexible, watertight and easy to clean in the dishwasher, Lékué Oven Mitt is great protection against water or oil when cooking, grilling, baking or frying.
